

CLASSROOM NEWS

FROM THE

3RD GRADE CORRAL

WEEK OF OCTOBER 23-27

READING

THE SECOND UNIT IS ABOUT CITY WILDLIFE. THE FIRST STORY IS A FICTION STORY. STUDENTS WILL BE DISCUSSING FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE, ANTONYMS AND REVIEWING NOUNS, VERBS AND PRONOUNS. DURING READING TIME STUDENTS WILL BE ABLE TO WORK ON SPELLING, AR TESTING AND LEXIA OR FRONTROW.

ATTACHED IS A BOOK ORDER. THIS ORDER WILL BE IN BEFORE CHRISTMAS. THIS IS A GREAT WAY TO GET BOOKS FOR GIFTS.

Math

Students will be multiplying by 5 and 10 and also 3 and 6. They will be learning about distributive property. Please practice math facts at home!

October 27th

SCIENCE

Students will learn the different clues a dinosaur footprint gives!

Halloween Party

Jennifer Koch is the chair for the party. Helpers are Nicole Eaton, Mistie Brown, Lydia Stewart, and Cynthia Dentista. The parade will start around 2:45 and the party will begin right after we return. Students need to bring their costume and I will give them time to change before the parade. Please remember NO weapons will allowed. Thanks!
